

Sandcherry is a small, short-lived shrub but is very winter hardy for our area. This shrub produces purplish/black berries that make wonderful jelly. Sandcherry leaves are dark/silvery in color and will generally be 1-2 inches in length. Sandcherry is used in field windbreaks and is cherished by many different birds.

